

DOB:            Breed: DMH - Male

Bradley, though does not like the camera, wants you to know he is ready for his forever home. He prefers a family who is going to spend time with him and help him come out of his shell more. He hopes there are other cats to play with, if not, he would like you to consider adopting him with one (or all) of his siblings!